

West End

The city's only choir specializing in rock, pop, Motown, blues and gospel sung in four-part harmony is looking for new members.

There's no audition or even experience required to become a member of the Sing City Show Choir: Vancouver's only Rock Show Choir. The choir is directed by Laura Lang, a professional singer and entertainer who, according to a press release, brings skill, experience and laughter to Tuesday night rehearsals. Training is provided at rehearsals, and it's promised most singers will develop or vastly improve quickly.

The 2012-2013 season begins Sept. 4 and new members can register now by visiting singcity.ca. While you're there make sure to check out the video montage found under "videos and photos" that includes the choir performing songs such as "Rehab" by Amy Winehouse, "Life in a Northern Town" by The Dream Academy and Brian Setzer's "Jump, Jive an' Wail."
